Dato Benny founded the firm of Joseph Tan Jude Benny LLP in 1988, and has been the architect of the firm's growth over the years, including the successful establishment of a network of offices across South-East Asia.

Dato Benny has an extensive arbitration practice and sits regularly as an arbitrator in international and domestic disputes. As an international arbitrator, Dato Benny has presided as a sole arbitrator, as well as part of a panel, in references from the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), the Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC), the London Chamber of International Arbitration (LCIA), the Singapore Chamber of Maritime Arbitration (SCMA) and numerous other ad hoc arbitrations.

With a wealth of experience in legal and commercial issues, acquired over the last 32 years, Dato Benny is well placed to hear disputes in all areas of commercial practice, and is particularly well placed to handle complex and large commercial disputes in various jurisdictions.

A C C O L A D E S

As a successful litigation lawyer, Dato Benny has been constantly awarded personal accolades in legal circles and publications. Tradenews, a publication of the Trade Development Board of Singapore stated in their issue, Vol 5 3.2001, " A major reason for Joseph Tan Jude Benny's success is the fact that Dato Benny is regarded within legal circles as one of the world's top maritime lawyers. His firm is well known in London, New York, Hong Kong and other maritime hubs".
